THE CO-CATHEDRAL OF SAINT JOSEPH

December 16th, 2018 • Diciembre 16 de 2018

In Bethlehem, Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary. This event is renewed today in the Church, a pilgrim in time. The first people to see the humble glory of the Saviour, after Mary and Joseph, were the shepherds of Bethlehem. Those humble and watchful men are an example for believers of every age who, before the mystery of Jesus, are not scandalized by his poverty. Today, as the winds of war are blowing in our world and an outdated model of development continues to produce human, societal and environmental decline, Christmas invites us to focus on the sign of the Child and to recognize him in the faces of little children, especially those for whom, like Jesus, "there is no place in the inn." Through their eyes we see the drama of all those forced to emigrate and risk their lives to face exhausting journeys that end at times in tragedy. Jesus knows well the pain of not being welcomed and how hard it is not to have a place to lay one's head. May our hearts not be closed as they were in the homes of Bethlehem. The sign of Christmas has also been revealed to us: "a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes." Like the Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph, like the shepherds of Bethlehem, may we welcome in the Baby Jesus the love of God made man for us. And may we commit ourselves, with the help of his grace, to making our world more human and more worthy for the children of today and of the future. Pope Francis, 2017

Jesús nació de María Virgen en Belén. Este acontecimiento se renueva hoy en la Iglesia, peregrina en el tiempo. Los primeros que vieron la humilde gloria del Salvador, después de María y José, fueron los pastores de Belén. Esos hombres humildes pero vigilantes son un ejemplo para los creyentes de todos los tiempos, los cuales, frente al misterio de Jesús, no se escandalizan por su pobreza. Por esta razón, mientras el mundo se ve azotado por vientos de guerra y un modelo de desarrollo ya caduco sigue provocando degradación humana, social y ambiental, la Navidad nos invita a recordar la señal del Niño y a que lo reconozcamos en los rostros de los niños, especialmente de aquellos para los que, como Jesús, «no hay sitio en la posada.» En sus ojos vemos el drama de tantos emigrantes forzosos que arriesgan incluso sus vidas para emprender viajes agotadores que muchas veces terminan en una tragedia. Jesús conoce bien el dolor de no ser acogido y la dificultad de no tener un lugar donde reclinar la cabeza. Que nuestros corazones no estén cerrados como las casas de Belén. También a nosotros se nos ha dado una señal de Navidad: «Un niño envuelto en pañales.» Como la Virgen María y san José, y los pastores de Belén, acogamos en el Niño Jesús el amor de Dios hecho hombre por nosotros, y esforcémonos, con su gracia, para hacer que nuestro mundo sea más humano, más digno de los niños de hoy y de mañana. Papa Francisco, 2017

À Bethléem, Jésus est né de la Vierge Marie. Cet événement se renouvelle aujourd'hui dans l'Église, en pèlerinage dans le temps. Les premiers à voir l'humble gloire du Sauveur, après Marie et Joseph, ont été les bergers de Bethléem. Ces hommes humbles mais vigilants sont un exemple pour les croyants de tous les temps qui, en présence du mystère de Jésus, ne se scandalisent pas de sa pauvreté. Aujourd'hui, alors que soufflent sur le monde des vents de guerre et qu'un modèle de développement déjà dépassé continue à engendrer de la dégradation humaine, sociale et environnementale, Noël nous renvoie au signe de l'Enfant, et nous appelle à le reconnaître sur les visages des enfants, spécialement de ceux pour qui, comme pour Jésus, «il n'y a plus de place dans la salle commune.» Dans leurs yeux, voyons le drame de tant de migrants forcés qui mettent en danger même leur vie pour affronter des voyages exténuants qui tant de fois finissent en tragédie. Jésus connaît bien la souffrance de ne pas être accueilli et la fatigue de ne pas avoir un lieu où pouvoir reposer la tête. Que notre cœur ne soit pas fermé comme le furent les maisons de Bethléem. A nous aussi est montré le signe de Noël: «un nouveau-né emmaillotté.» Comme la Vierge Marie et saint Joseph, comme les bergers de Bethléem, accueillons dans l'Enfant Jésus l'amour de Dieu fait homme pour nous, et engageons-nous, avec sa grâce, à rendre notre monde plus humain, plus digne des enfants d'aujourd'hui et de demain. Papa Francois, 2017

On December 9, our parish children met with Santa and some of his helpers at the ‘Brunch With Santa’ event held in the St. Teresa of Avila Hall. There were goodies such as homemade waffles, hot chocolate, fruits and cookies, arts and crafts, storytelling and pictures! It was a fun time for all the children that stopped by! Thank-you Santa!

El 9 de diciembre, los niños de nuestra parroquia se reunieron con Santa Claus y algunos de sus ayudantes en el evento ‘Brunch With Santa’ que se llevó a cabo en el Salón Principal de Santa Teresa de Ávila. ¡Había golosinas como waffles caseros, chocolate caliente, frutas y galletas, manualidades, cuentos y fotos! ¡Fue un momento divertido para todos los niños que pasaron por aquí! Gracias Santa!

“Listen to Your Grandparents!”

In the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, Mary and Joseph have travelled as pilgrims to Jerusalem in obedience to the Law of the Lord; the aged Simeon and the elderly prophetess Anna have come to the Temple led by the Holy Spirit. In this scene three generations come together, the interweaving of three generations: Simeon holds in his arms the child Jesus, in whom he recognizes the Messiah, while Anna is shown praising God and proclaiming salvation to those awaiting the redemption of Israel. These two elderly persons represent faith as memory. But let me ask you: Do you listen to your grandparents? Do you open your hearts to the memories that your grandparents pass on? Grandparents are like the wisdom of the family, they are the wisdom of a people. Listen to your grandparents. Pope Francis, 2013.

“¡Escucha a tus abuelos!”

En la Presentación de Jesús en el Templo, María y José viajaron como peregrinos a Jerusalén en obediencia a la Ley del Señor; el anciano Simeón y la anciana profetisa Ana han venido al Templo dirigidos por el Espíritu Santo. En esta escena se juntan tres generaciones, el entretrejo de tres generaciones: Simeón sostiene en sus brazos al niño Jesús, en quien reconoce al Mesías, mientras que a Anna se le muestra alabando a Dios y proclamando la salvación a aquellos que esperan la redención de Israel. Estas dos personas mayores representan la fe como memoria. Pero déjenme preguntarles: ¿escuchan a sus abuelos? ¿Abren sus corazones a los recuerdos que transmiten sus abuelos? Los abuelos son como la sabiduría de la familia, son la sabiduría de un pueblo. Escuchen a sus abuelos. Papa Francisco, 2013.

JESUS THE FOCAL POINT JESÚS COMO PUNTO FOCAL

Last Sunday was the final meeting of the Young Adults group of the year and the tone was appropriately festive. The theme was ADVENT: What are you waiting for? and after an icebreaker and lunch, a stirring discussion decked the halls. The group discussed how easy it is to become distracted during the holidays and how we can better prepare for the coming of our Lord this Christmas. In someplace as diverse as Brooklyn, there are many ways to celebrate - but what's important is we keep the Jesus the focal point of the season!

A MEANS OF GRACE AND SALVATION UN MEDIO DE GRACIA Y SALVACIÓN

"Marriage does not exist merely as a natural union, but also as a means of grace and salvation—not only to the husband and wife, but to the fruit their marriage generates within the culture. But this depends on whether spouses will embrace the truth of who they are in Christ and live according to that truth." St. John Paul II

"El matrimonio no existe sólo como una unión natural, sino también como un medio de gracia y salvación - No solo para el esposo y la esposa, sino también para el fruto que su matrimonio genera dentro de la cultura. Pero esto depende de si los cónyuge abrazan la verdad de quiénes son en Cristo y viven de acuerdo con esa verdad ". San Juan Pablo II
