FROM MONSIGNOR HARRINGTON'S DESK DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DE MONSEÑOR HARRINGTON

BLACK HISTORY MONTH MES DE LA HISTORIA NEGRA LE MOIS DE L'HISTOIRE NOIRE

February is the Black History month in the United States, a time in which we pay tribute to the generations of African Americans who struggled with adversity to achieve full citizenship in American society. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: The equality of men rests essentially on their dignity as persons and the rights that flow from it: "Every form of social or cultural discrimination in fundamental personal rights on the grounds of sex, race, color, social conditions, language, or religion must be curbed and eradicated as incompatible with God's design.

Febrero es el Mes de la Historia Negra en los Estados Unidos, un momento en el que rendimos homenaje a las generaciones de afroamericanos que lucharon contra la adversidad para lograr la plena ciudadanía en la sociedad estadounidense. Como dice el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica: La igualdad de los hombres se basa esencialmente en su dignidad como personas y los derechos que se derivan de ella: "Toda forma de discriminación social o cultural en los derechos personales fundamentales por motivos de sexo, raza, color, Las condiciones sociales, el idioma o la religión deben ser reprimidos y

The elderly bring peace and acceptance to a wounded world. They give us another way of living and of giving thanks. Far from adolescent dreams, the older adult teaches us to face the truth of life, with a deep realism, to make us able to distinguish the ephemeral from what remains. Aleteia.

Los ancianos traen paz y aceptación a un mundo herido, nos regalan otro modo de vivir el tiempo y la gratuidad. Lejos ya de los sueños adolescentes, el adulto mayor nos enseña a enfrentarnos con la verdad de la vida, con un realismo profundo, para hacernos capaces de distinguir lo efímero de lo que permanece. Aleteia.

THE EXPERIENCE WAS "TRANSFORMATIVE"

A particularly lively meeting of the Young Adults Group convened last Sunday, February 10th, after the evening mass at St. Teresa of Avila. First off, participants of the recent Silent Retreat recounted the powerful changes they underwent. The word that was agreed to be most accurate when describing the experience was "transformative." Following this, the group had a lively discussion on the topic of religious freedom and non-discrimination; disagreement led to agreement and church doctrine that may have been misinterpreted was clarified. And, finally, out came a cake - as the group celebrated Mother Maria's birthday! The next Young Adults meeting will be March 10th at St. Joseph's Co-Cathedral, 1pm in the Rectory, immediately following noon Mass.

Couple's Program Programa de Parejas

Sts. Louis and Zelie Martin, the first married couple to be canonized together, were not always interested in married life. In fact, both tried to join religious communities. As the years passed by however, each realized they felt called to the vocation of marriage. But neither could find the right Partner. Years later, Zelie noticed a handsome young man walking toward her. As they got closer, Zelie heard within her soul, "This is he whom I have prepared for you." Louis similarly was struck by this beautiful young woman. Coincidentally, Louis' mother was taking lace making classes with Zelie at the time and wanted to play matchmaker. They met and immediately knew they were meant to be together. They were soon wed and lived a marriage filled with faith and many children, including the St. Therese of Lisieux and Servant of God Leonie Martin. Not every marriage begins with so many coincidences, but Louis and Zelie Martin's story reminds us that God is always ready to surprise us with his plan for our lives. Derived from Aleteia.

Sts. Louis y Zelie Martin, la primera pareja casada que se canonizaron juntos, no estaban interesados en la vida matrimonial originalmente. De hecho, ambos intentaron unirse a comunidades religiosas. Sin embargo, a medida que pasaban los años, cada uno se dio cuenta de que se sentía llamado a la vocación del matrimonio. Pero tampoco podían encontrar un compañero adecuado. Años más tarde, Zelie se dio cuenta de que un joven apuesto caminaba hacia ella. Cuando se acercaron, Zelie escuchó dentro de su alma: "Este es el que he preparado para ti." Louis igualmente quedó impresionado por la hermosa joven. Coincidentemente, la madre de Louis estaba tomando clases de encaje con Zelie en aquel tiempo y quería jugar a la casamentera. Se conocieron e inmediatamente supieron que estaban destinados a estar juntos. Pronto se casaron y vivieron un matrimonio lleno de fe y muchos hijos, entre ellos la Santa Teresa de Lisieux y la Sierva de Dios Leonie Martin. No todos los matrimonios comienzan con tantas coincidencias, pero la historia de Louis y Zelie Martin nos recuerda que Dios siempre está listo para sorprendernos con su plan para nuestras vidas. Derivado de Aleteia.

As a single community of faith, SJs & STs, we have a privileged opportunity to encounter Jesus in our enriching diversity. In this way, we are called to service and unity sharing at the same time the beauty of our own and particular culture, the diversity of our customs, the stories that are deeply imprinted on our hearts, and mostly we share "one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all." As brothers and sisters let us pray together:

we hear your voice telling us what is required...*

*"Que practiques la justicia y ames la lealtad y que

Llénanos de tu misericordia para que también

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
