UN VIAJE ESPIRITUAL
A SPIRITUAL JOURNEY
UN VOYAGE SPIRITUEL

Seniors who view aging as a spiritual journey, often find that enhancing their relationships with the significant others in their lives becomes a priority—such as their relationship with God, their family, friends and their faith community. As seniors grow in their spirituality, they have an opportunity to find or to redefine their sense of meaning and purpose in life. (All about Seniors, 2017)

Las personas mayores que ven el envejecimiento como un viaje espiritual, a menudo encuentran que mejorando sus relaciones con las personas significativas en sus vidas se convierte en una prioridad, como su relación con Dios, su familia, sus amigos y su comunidad de fe. A medida que los adultos mayores crecen en su espiritualidad, tienen la oportunidad de encontrar o redefinir su sentido de significado y propósito en la vida. (All about Seniors, 2017)

Les personnes âgées qui considèrent le vieillissement comme un voyage spirituel constatent souvent que l'amélioration de leurs relations avec les personnes qui comptent dans leur vie devient une priorité - telles que leurs relations avec Dieu, leur famille, leurs amis et leur communauté confessionnelle. Au fur et à mesure que les personnes âgées grandissent dans leur spiritualité, elles ont la possibilité de trouver ou de redéfinir leur sens et leur but dans la vie. (All about Seniors, 2017)

“By drawing closer to the poor, little by little we become their confidants and counselors in the worst moments of this earthly pilgrimage. We can give them the comforting words of faith and often we succeed, not by our own merit, in putting on the right road people who have strayed without meaning to.” Blessed Giorgio Frassati.

As we look back on last week’s celebration of the feast day of St. Joseph, let’s pause for a moment to think about what Joseph, the man, went through when he learned that his betrothed, Mary, was pregnant. Surely disappointment crushed him, yet since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly (Mt 1:19). Despite everything, Joseph’s compassion poured out over Mary and her unborn child. Joseph and Mary are woven together by a Father who knows each of their needs for a helpmate and tender companion; showing us that there is a kind of happily ever after open to everyone right here. It is not a certificate or ceremony. It is the sacramental union of two hearts. A heart moved in abundant tenderness to its beloved has the power to open the door to the miracle that awaits. Adapted from Jennifer Hubbard, Magnificat, March 2019.

Al mirar hacia atrás en la celebración de la semana pasada de la fiesta de San José, debemos pausar por un momento para pensar en lo que pasó José, el hombre, cuando supo que su prometida, María, estaba embarazada. Seguramente la decepción lo aplastó, pero como era un hombre justo, y no estaba dispuesto a exponerla a la vergüenza, decidió divorciarse de ella en silencio (Mt 1:19). A Pesar de todo, la compasión de José se derramó sobre María y su hijo por nacer. José y María están entretnejidos por un Padre que conoce su necesidad de un compañero solícito y tierno; mostrándonos que hay una especie de felicidad-para-siempre disponible para todos aquí. No es solamente un certificado o una ceremonia. Es la unión sacramental de dos corazones. Un corazón movido en abundante ternura hacia su amada tiene el poder de abrir la puerta al milagro que le espera. Adaptado de Jennifer Hubbard, Magnificat, March 2019.

RETIRO DE PAREJAS Y FAMILIAS

El pasado fin de semana las familias de San José, Santa Teresa y de otras parroquias de la Diócesis experimentaron un retiro espiritual muy enriquecedor con Héctor Tobo. Todavía se siente el sabor en nuestros corazones de la Palabra de Vida compartida durante estos tres días de recogimiento, oración, música, alegría, y luz. Seguramente que nuestras familias seguirán cosechando muchos frutos de la gracia en sus hogares.

¡Nos vemos en el próximo!
