RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK

Religious Freedom Week 2019: Strength in Hope

Yesterday June 29, we completed Religious Freedom Week as an invitation to pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad. In the face of our country's challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone. Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope! Taken from USCC, 2019.

"It's the duty of everyone to defend religious freedom and promote it for all people." Pope Francis, 2019.

Semana de la Libertad 2019: Fuerza en la Esperanza

Ayer, 29 de junio, terminamos la Semana de la Libertad Religiosa como una invitación a orar, reflexionar y tomar acciones en favor de la libertad religiosa, tanto en este país como en el extranjero. Frente a los desafíos de nuestro país y los desafíos dentro de la Iglesia, los católicos encuentran fuerza en la esperanza de Jesucristo. Queremos compartir esa esperanza con todos. La libertad religiosa nos da el espacio para llevar a cabo la

LET'S STOP TRYING TO SELL THE GOSPEL

How might a good evangelist “sell” Christianity? Well, from a marketing point of view, hawking Christianity as a means toward, say, self-esteem, wellness, wealth (and the many other forms of the so-called “prosperity gospel”) has a long and checkered history. It’s an error that just won’t go away. One reason that it won’t go away is because, in a certain sense, it works.

If Christian evangelists are looking for (paying) “customers” they will be embarrassed when Jesus says: Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road is easy that leads to destruction, and there are many who take it. For the gate is narrow and the road is hard that leads to life, and there are few who find it. (Matthew 7:12-14)

Who can deny that we’re in dark times? If the content of our preaching is to be truly the Gospel, we must have preachers who are already submitting themselves to the disciplines necessary to find and enter through Christ’s “narrow gate.” Our preaching must be more than a human work. Renowned preacher Charles Spurgeon taught:

The gospel is preached in the ears of all men; it only comes with power to some. The power that is in the gospel does not lie in the eloquence of the preacher; otherwise men would be converters of souls. Nor does it lie in the preacher’s learning; otherwise it could consist of the wisdom of men. We might preach till our tongues rotted, till we should exhaust our lungs and die, but never a soul would be converted unless there were mysterious power going with it – the Holy Ghost changing the will of man. O Sirs! We might as well preach to stone walls as preach to humanity unless the Holy Ghost be with the word, to give it power to convert the soul.

If we find ourselves looking for techniques, gimmicks, novelties, or glitter in order to “sell” the Gospel, we would do well to consider whether or not we really believe Jesus of Nazareth is the Christ of God. We should ask whether we really believe that only the narrow gate leads to life. We’re more likely to appear credible to would-be converts if we ourselves were already converted to Christ.

Couple’s Program Programa de Parejas

The fairest love is learned above all in prayer. Prayer, in fact, always brings with it, to use the expression of St. Paul, a type of interior hiddenness with Christ in God. Only in this hiddenness do we see the workings of the Holy Spirit, the source of fairest love. He has poured this love not only in the hearts of Mary and Joseph but also in the hearts of all married couples who are open to hearing the Word of God and keeping it (cf. Lk 8:15). The future of each family unit depends upon this fairest love: the mutual love of husband and wife, parents and children, a love embracing all generations. Richard P Fitzgibbons, Marital Friendship, Romance, Intimacy and Faith, 2005.

El amor más hermoso se aprende sobre todo en la oración. La oración, de hecho, siempre trae consigo, para usar la expresión de San Pablo, un tipo de ocultamiento interior con Cristo en Dios. Solo en este ocultamiento vemos la acción del Espíritu Santo, la fuente del amor más bello. Él ha derramado este amor no solo en los corazones de María y José, sino también en los corazones de todas las parejas casadas que están abiertas a escuchar la palabra de Dios y guardarla (cf. Lc 8, 15). El futuro de la unidad familiar depende de este amor más hermoso: el amor mutuo de marido y mujer, de padres e hijos, un amor que abarca todas las generaciones. Richard P Fitzgibbons, Amistad conyugal, Romance, Intimidad y Fe, 2005.

Le plus bel amour s’apprend avant tout dans la prière. En fait, la prière s’accompagne toujours d’une expression de Saint Paul, une forme de dissimulation intérieure avec Christ en Dieu. Ce n’est que dans cette cachette que nous voyons l’action du Saint-Esprit, source du plus bel amour. Il a répandu cet amour non seulement dans les cœurs de Marie et de Joseph, mais aussi dans les cœurs de tous les couples mariés qui sont disposés à entendre et à garder la Parole de Dieu (cf. Lc 8, 15). L’avenir de chaque unité familiale dépend de cet amour le plus bel: l’amour mutuel entre mari et femme, parents et enfants, un amour qui embrasse toutes les générations. Richard P Fitzgibbons, Amitié conjugale, Romance, Intimité et Foi, 2005.
